

Katrina Larkin - Parish Clerk

Here we meet Dr Katrina Larkin who was appointed Parish Clerk in 2011. Raised in rural Kent, Katrina spent her early career in central London, working first as an administrator for the Church of England, and later as a lecturer in Hebrew Bible at King's College, London. She holds two first class honours degrees in Geography and Divinity, and a Ph.D in Hebrew Bible. Following the birth of their daughter Caroline, she and husband David moved to rural Sussex where Katrina returned to the work place as a teaching assistant at a local primary school she taught kids to read, and they taught her about behaviour management! She began clerking in 2008 and has the CiLCA qualification
