East Dean & Friston - Village Celebrations for The Queen's Platinum Jubilee 2022

To celebrate Queen Elizabeth II's 70 years as monarch, the government has declared 2nd and 3rd June 2022 to be Bank Holidays and a national programme of celebrations are being planned for the resulting four-day weekend.

Locally, our village has a long history of celebrating Royal Jubilees, (going back to Queen Victoria's diamond celebration in 1897) and June 2022 will be no exception. The Parish Council, Cricket Club, Residents Association, Village Hall Trust, and Parish Church are all planning events, covering not only the Bank Holiday weekend, but the three preceding school half term days. We hope that residents will support these events and enjoy this unique moment in our nation's history.

Sheila Hay – Ceramic Artist

As a result of sponsorship by the Sussex Community Foundation, funded by the Arts Council, we are delighted to welcome Sheila Hay, local artist to join our celebrations. Sheila Hay is a ceramic artist and educator who has a studio in East Dean. Her work ranges from functional ware to sculptural and installation work.

Sheila is going to design and make a decorative ceramic legacy "Crown Sculpture" for the village which we can enjoy for many years as a memento of the Queen's Platinum Jubilee 2022.

The organisers of all these events would like to thank our many volunteers for helping to make this "A week to remember"
